TO THE
NOBILITY, GENTRY, &c.
OF THE COUNTIES OF STAFFORD, CHESTER, and LANCASTER.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

WITH gratitude for your generous subscription to, and encouragement of the following work, permit me, with a heart overflowing with a sense of your kindness, to embrace this opportunity of expressing my great obligations to you for the same.

In a great commercial country, where improvements are constantly making, where the increase of trade, and consequently of wealth, is progressive, it will be deemed commendable in the individual who can contribute his mite for the general advantage: As the counties here described, have not been the last in those Improvements, I hope this Survey and Description thereof, will not be deemed superfluous or unnecessary.

The

IV D E D I C A T I O N.

The undertaking has been arduous and expenfive, but if, upon the whole, it should be found to give that satisfaction and information intended, according to my propofals, and the expectation of the public, I fhall be happy in the reflection.

I rely upon your candour, with refpect to any omiffion or miftakes, which after the moft minute attention, I may not have been able to avoid.

With the moft grateful fenfe of your kindnefs, permit me thus publicly, to exprefs my great obligations for your generofity, and the high refpect with which I am,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Your moft obliged,

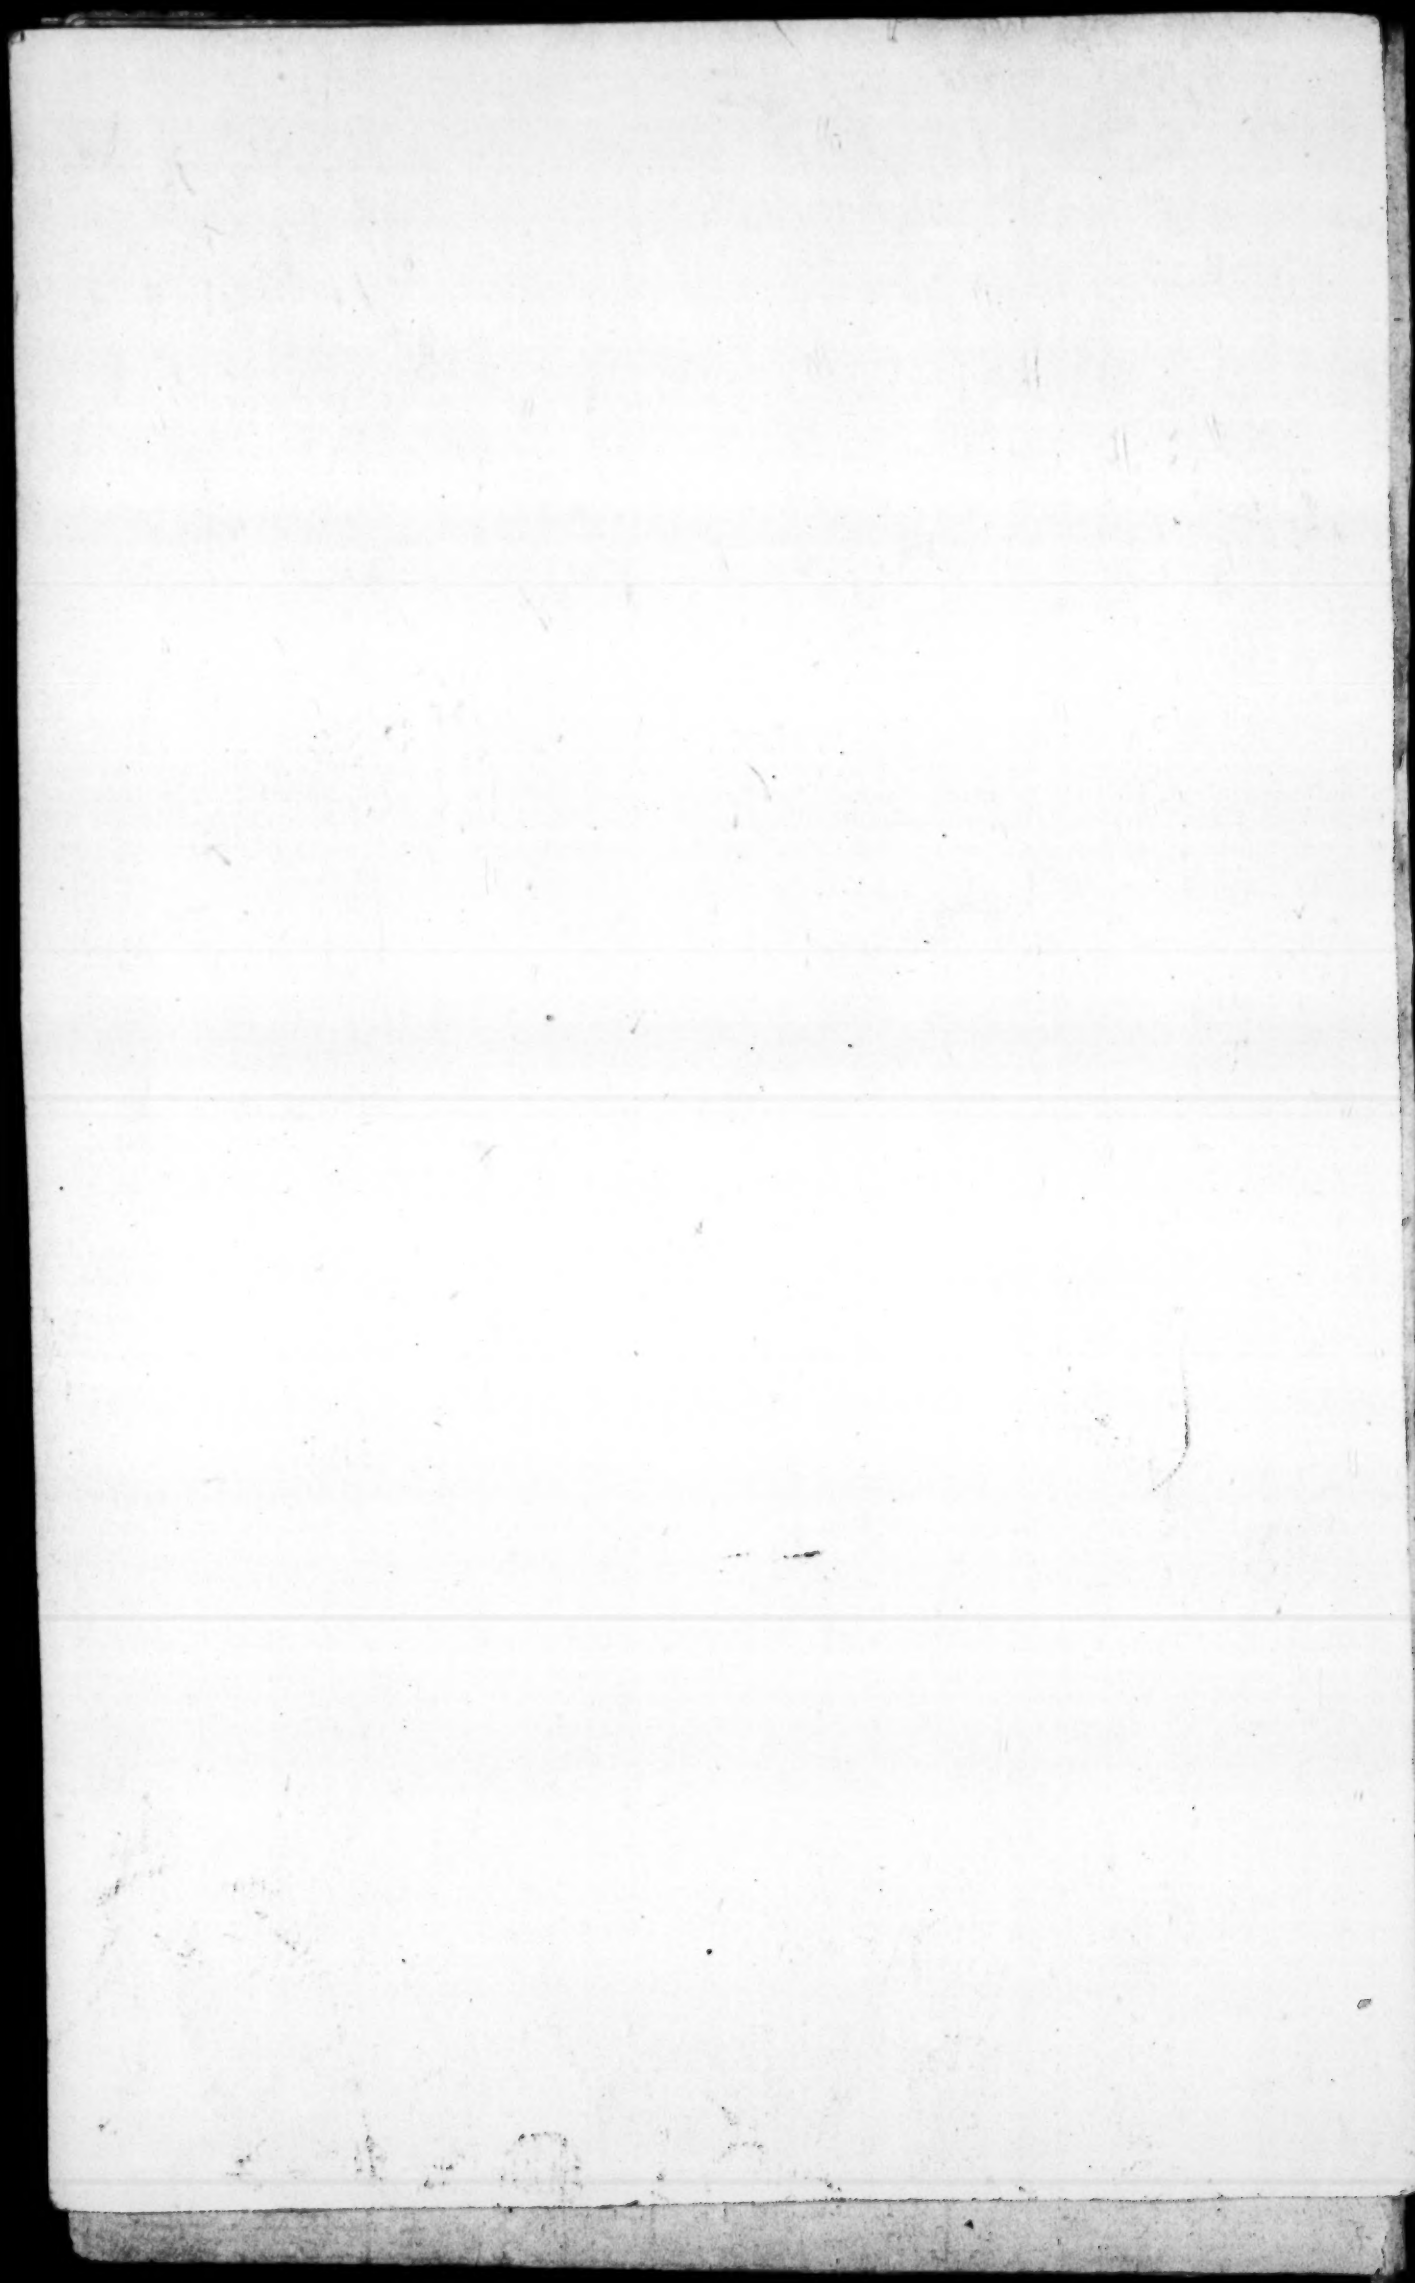

And moft obedient

F I N I S.

Wanted, by the Author, W. T. T. (who humbly pretenses he is qualified for such Endeavouring) the Place of Steward to a Nobleman or Gentleman, where an intimate management on a large Plan, in that Capacity, is required; he can have substantial Recommendation with Respect to his Ability and Integrity. He has been accustomed to the Practice of Surveying Land, Measuring, marking Plans of and estimating the Expence of erecting Buildings; can negotiate and value Timber, and allot it to its proper Uses; understands the Farming Business, teaching buying, and selling Stock, and keeping Accounts in the various Departments in a clear, concise, and satisfactory Manner. An active Situation would be preferred; should have no Objections to go to Ireland, or any Part of England, where Improvements on a large Plan, may be required: Or he is qualified for, and willing to undertake the Place of a Clerk to a Merchant, or very capital Manager, to whom Security for the Trust reposed would be given.

* * * Letters addressed to the Author, at the Post-Office, Manchester, will be duly attended to.
